

SKULP TURUN DRAUM

Entrance Examination Sculpture and Space
Academic year 2019/2020
Submission of portfolio and exam
25.02.2019 - 28.02.2019

Admission to the diploma degree programme Fine Arts with the main artistic subject Sculpture and Space requires a review on artistic abilities in the frame of an entrance exam in two parts.

- First part: Evaluation of submitted works
- Second part: written and practical exam and personal interview

The entrance exam takes place at the department Sculpture and Space, Paulusplatz 5, 1030 Wien.

Timeline

Mon. 25.02.19, 9.30 am-3 pm

Application and submission of works

- Tabular CV with photo
- Personal motivation for joining the course in form of a short statement
- Portfolio
- One sculpture

Tue. 26.02.19, 9.30 am

Announcement of applicants accepted for the second part of the exam

Tue. 26.02.19, 9.30-10.30 am

Portfolios will be returned to those applicants not accepted

Applicants accepted for the second part:

Tue. 26.02.19, 11 am-3 pm

Written and practical exam. Please, bring your own drawing material.

Wed. 27.02.19, 2-3 pm

Submission of work results

Thu. 28.02.19

Personal interviews

Latest Fri. 08.03.19

Announcement of applicants accepted for the course at the main building and at the Department of Sculpture and Space.

Admission

After successful completion of the entrance exam, formal admission is granted by the Office of Student and Academic Affairs (Studienabteilung) during the admission period: Studienabteilung der Universität für angewandte Kunst Wien, Oskar Kokoschka-Platz 2, 1010 Wien, phone: +43-1-71133-2060.

You may find further information about administrative steps on application, tuition fees, information for foreign applicants etc. here:

dieangewandte.at, dieangewandte.at/application or:

www.uni-ak.ac.at/stab/checklists/zulassung_dbm.pdf

The course starts on October 1, 2019.

Portfolio consultations

We will offer portfolio reviews for applicants on December 11, 2018 between 3.30 and 5.30 pm and on January 15, 2019 between 3.30 and 5.30 pm at the Department of Sculpture and Space, Paulusplatz 5, 1030 Wien.